Meet Nancy Dimock... oboist and avid reeder

Born in Rochester, Nancy lives in Boston with husband Joel and cats Scout and Jem. Nancy has lived in Mexico and Hawaii – but wherever she goes, she has her reed knife handy. (Reeds are so individual, most professionals make their own.) One year, while working for a supplier, she made over 10,000!

Favorite composer: Bach

Favorite movie: A Fish Called Wanda

Favorite vice: Despair.com

Secret ambition: To build a house herself. (She has a head start on the tools!)

Comfort food: Peppermint stick ice cream

What inspires her: People brave enough to attempt to make a difference. (Small surprise she is chair of our Orchestra Committee.)

Favorite way to spend an evening: With friends, laughing... NOT making reeds.
