

Life Is a Symphony

Meet John Dunlop, stellar cellist and super cyclist

When John isn't hard at work making music, chances are he's hard at play biking, hiking, skiing, or gardening.

He attended Oberlin and the San Francisco Conservatory of Music, but for this BHS grad, Vermont is home.

Most recent accomplishment: Writing the score for an independent documentary film on childhood hunger.

Favorite way to spend an evening: Curled up with a bowl of popcorn, an old movie, Significant Other VSO violinist Laura Markowitz, and Significant Felines Buji and Tika.
