

Life Is a Symphony

Meet Anne Janson, accomplished flutist and wakeboarder.

When Anne isn't breathing life into her flute on stage, she's catching air off the wakes on Lake Champlain. (Wakeboarding is like snowboarding – only on water.)

Her secret ambition is to sail around the world, her favorite vice is sun tanning, and (small surprise) her pet peeve is February.

Anne adores coffee with cream (a Swedish thing?), as well as her Golden Retriever, Lucy.

She says her life is a perfect combination of music and family – another balancing act at which she excels.
