Meet Jeremy Levine... timpanist and sweet tooth

Jeremy has played with us since 2006. He teaches at the Calderone Music School in New Jersey and lives in New York City, where he shares an apartment with three adorable, cuddly roommates: Elizabeth, Sammy, and Laila. (The last two are cats.)

Comfort food: Betty Crocker cakes

Childhood ambition: to be goalie for the NY Rangers

Favorite vice: Dance Dance Revolution

Biggest challenge: finding time to practice

Jeremy says he is bowled over by the VSO, and never complains about the travel. Could it be that his snack preference accounts for his disposition?! The frosting on his cake is that Elizabeth, a violinist, has just won a spot in the VSO as well, so now he has company for that long commute.
