

Life Is a Symphony

Meet Harold Lieberman...

principal violist and wool gatherer

A calming sight in the green room, Harold has knitted, tatted, and crocheted his way through 16 seasons with the VSO. He lives in Roslindale, MA (single but on the prowl), and freelances in the greater Boston area while also working as Database Administrator for the MA Developmental Disabilities Council.

Harold says his heroes, "like any good Illinois native," are Abe Lincoln and Steve Ansell (principal violist of the Boston Symphony). Apart from "an ex-boyfriend from hell" and not enough spare time, life is good.

Favorite movie: The Wizard of Oz – what else?!

Comfort food: tapioca

Pet peeve: people's inability to see a different point of view

Favorite vice: sarcasm

He's most proud of his new great-nephew, Elliott. Clearly a close-knit family...
